1. In September 1953 there was comparatively little Soviet rail transport through Kargowa (Unruhstadt-053/W51); as compared with previous months the decrease was considerable.
2. the following transports as being of special interest:
 - 4 September 1953: 45 refrigerated vans from west to east. This transport had an unusually strong escort: two Soviet soldiers per car.
 - 15 September 1953: Thirty-eight 25-ton-cars proceeding westward. Normal escort. The load must have been heavy as it was drawn by three locomotives: two at the head of the train and one in the middle.
 - 20 September 1953: 8 freight cars, 12 hospital cars, and several passenger coaches. Soviet soldiers in uniform were seen in the freight cars and men in underwear in the hospital and passenger coaches. Nurses were seen in several coaches.
